

As a Trucker I find the xm radio traffic and weather very helpful when I'm planning a trip. There is no other service of this kind available on broadcast radio.

If broadcast radio wants to compete with xm, then they need to improve their service so listeners will CHOOSE to tune them in.

I suppose your next move will be to burn books because they compete with Hollywood.

Stop the TYRANNY!